Nursery Continues House Canvassing In Building Drive

House-to-house canvassing in the Funds Campaign for the new Sierra Madre Community Nursery School Association building is continuing this week and next, with first reports on this part of the campaign due Monday, Sept. 26.

Firemen Fund Discouraging ... Eakman

Francis Eakman, sponsor of the money-raising campaign to buy new furniture for the Firemen's City Hall Clubroom, this week expressed disappointment that more contributions had not been received.

"People don't seem to realize two things," Eakman said. "First, they don't fully appreciate what a benefit they receive from the 24-hour vigilance of our unpaid volunteer firemen."

"Second," he continued, "most of our citizens do not understand how badly the firemen need new furniture to make their clubroom a little more 'livable'."

Eakman denounced present broken, worn out, and pitifully inadequate furniture as "a disgrace to Sierra Madre."

"We should be ashamed that enough money has not been obtained after four weeks of campaigning to pay for this very small indication of our gratitude."

He explained that if 600 persons would contribute 50 cents each, the goal of $500 could be reached immediately. As of this week, Eakman has collected $211 of the necessary money.

Eakman said he will continue his solicitation work this week, and also asked that contributions be turned in at the NEWS office.

Two Drivers Pay Fines

Two persons were fined Saturday by City Judge John C. Mead in a quiet session of traffic court.

John Arthur Mattice, 38 Auburn avenue, paid a $15 fine for "running" a boulevard stop sign and driving 45 miles per hour in a 25-mile zone. Explaining that his speedometer was not working correctly, Judge Mead cautioned the driver to "get it fixed right away."

For being a week late in appearing to answer for illegal parking charges and for not having his automobile registration visible in the driver's compartment, Donald Melvin, 1140 N. Michillinda, Arcadia, was fined $5.

MRS. H. WHITE JR. RESIGNS AS HEAD OF NURSERY ASSN.

Mrs. Howell N. White Jr. this week resigned her post as President of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School Association.

Mrs. White is a charter member of the Association and previously served for one year as vice-president.

She is succeeded by George Parr, former vice-president and last year's treasurer. Parr was elected by the Association Board of Trustees last week and will fill the remainder of Mrs. White's term.

134 Certificates Issued in 1949 RC Swim Drive

Sierra Madre's 1949 American Red Cross Swim Campaign ended Saturday, Sept. 10, with a total of 134 swimming certificates being awarded, Florence Peterson announced last week.

The local Red Cross Executive Secretary disclosed that this year's drive was highly successful with 277 registrations recorded for the two sessions. Fifty of this number, however, were enrolled in both sessions, bringing the actual individual count down to 177, she explained.

During the 1948 swimming classes, 158 persons registered for the two classes, with 126 certificates issued.

Under the instruction of Mrs. Audrey Smith, 130 children and adults attended the first class, Aug. 8 to Aug. 24; and 97, of which 50 were re-enrollments, attended the second course, Aug. 25 to Sept. 10.

According to Mrs. Peterson, the following certificates were awarded: 96 pollywog, 14 beginners, 3 intermediates, 13 swimmers, 5 junior life saving, and 3 senior life saving.

Large Crowd Expected At Mason Event

A capacity attendance is expected Saturday evening, Sept. 24, when the Past Masters of Sierra Madre Lodge No. 408 present the September Masonic dinner.

Scheduled for 6:45 p.m. at the Masonic Temple, the dinner will feature a talk by Judge Newcomb Condee, 33rd degree, Judge of the Los Angeles Superior Court.

Seated at the speaker's table will be the following Past Masters of the Sierra Madre Lodge: George Morgridge, 1923; D. C. Ashmore, 1925; C. L. Twycross, 1928; John Buchan, 1931; T. M. Schwartz, 1934; Thomas Miller Jr., 1935; H. J. Nord, 1941; Boyd E. Keith, 1943; Henry Rintleman, 1944; Thomas Meader, 1947; John C. Mead, 1948, and Harold Roberts, 1949.

Two other special guests at the dinner will be Stephen E. Skidmore, Inspector of the 93rd Masonic District, and A. I. Melenthin, charter member of the Sojourner Lodge, Monrovia.

KIWANIANS ELECT JAMES SPENCER 1950 PRESIDENT

James L. Spencer Tuesday was elected 1950 President of the Sierra Madre Kiwanis Club. He will formally succeed President J. Earl Gossard at the first of the year.

A resident of California for five years, Spencer has lived in Sierra Madre for the last two years, and has been active in the local Kiwanis group during that time.

Even while living in Pasadena, the new Kiwanis chief worked actively with the Sierra Madre Explorer Scout group, an organization sponsored by the Kiwanis Club.

Spencer, who lives at 678 Alta Vista Drive, says that Scouting is his pet project, and he is closely affiliated with Explorer Post 108.

Born in Missouri, the 1949 vice-president lived in that state throughout his early life and attended the University of Missouri. While living at Leavenworth, Kansas, for several years, he served as president of that city's Kiwanis Club.

Also at Tuesday's meeting, Superintendent of Schools Charles Skutt was elected vice-president for the coming year. were Capt. E. G. Everett, F. M. Gibian, Don Jackson, Al Foxton, and Hugh Warden.

Second Grade Pupils To Visit Fair Friday

Sierra Madre Elementary School pupils of the three second grade classes will visit the Pomona Fair tomorrow, Friday, Superintendent of School Charles Skutt announced this week. The children will leave for the Fair at 9 a. m., and will be back on the School grounds by 2 p. m.

Officials, Council Get Annexation Answers

Chamber, Planners Meet With Junior Realty Firm

Answers to questions Sierra Madreams have in connection with the proposed annexation of the Upper Hastings Ranch were given this week to city and school officials and representatives of the Chamber of Commerce.

They met at the City Hall Monday night with Louis H. Boyar, vice president of the Junior Realty Company which, through the Aetna Construction Company, will develop this 204-acre tract.

Besides the Councilmen, School Trustees E. Waldo Ward, Mrs. Edith Dane and Howell White, Jr.; Planning Commissioners Bayard Bigelow, Harry Johnson and W. W. Gildersleeve, as members of the Commission's subdivision committee, and A. E. Morgan and Noren Eaton, representing the Chamber, were present.

Following the meeting, Boyar reiterated to the NEWS the following statements which were made to the group:

1. Water: "I have assured myself that there is water for this tract. There is water available whether I go into Sierra Madre or not. I wouldn't want to come in if there were no water."

2. City Bonds: "We will accept our share of the bonded indebtedness of the city. No person living here (in the Upper Hastings) has the right to enjoy benefits being paid for by others without assuming a just share of the cost."

"No subdivider with any vision would care to join a city without such an understanding. (As for the proposed swimming pool to be voted on October 18.) Yes, if it passes, we will join in the cost."

3. Water Mains: "Cost of water mains in the streets of the tract we put in at our expense."

4. Schools: "We don't expect the school board to pay one cent of overhead or profit (in acquiring land for a school site). We picked the most level site for a school to keep school construction costs down."

"Average cost of the land to us was $4500 an acre. The lowest—$2800 an acre. We wouldn't charge the board more than our minimum cost—which is much less than any other land the board could buy."

5. Setbacks and planning: "I prefer a variation in a front setback, but it isn't important if the city wants a straight line. But it results in stereotype. For good planning—and all up to date planning commissions are going along—the staggered setback is recommended. Say, with a 20-foot minimum and a 25-foot maximum which gives the effect of a curve on a straight street and gives a curve within a curve on a curved street."

6. Streets and other improvements: "We have agreed to meet all city specifications."

7. G. I. Buyers: "Total cost of this land is so expensive that the average G. I.—and I say AVERAGE G. I.—could not

Local Youth Trapped In Rolling Car

Ervin Podliska, 650 Montecito, is feeling mighty happy to be alive this week.

A victim of a freak automobile mishap, Ervin, who will be 16 in January, was trapped in his car as it rolled over four times Sunday morning.

Today he is in St. Luke Hospital, receiving treatment for his injuries: a fractured rib, severe scalp and face lacerations, and a badly mangled left hand.

Doctors say Podliska will have to undergo several surgical operations before use of the hand will be restored.

According to his mother, Mrs. Ervin J. Podliska, the young driver was returning home on Sierra Madre boulevard to attend church. At the Paloma street intersection, her son reportedly did not see the boulevard stop sign.

Another car immediately ahead of Podliska's made the stop; and in his attempt to avoid hitting it, the 15-year-old boy swerved onto a soft shoulder.

As the car hit the treacherous sand, it spun and overturned four times in a 90-foot skid. Podliska had to be extricated from the wreckage of his automobile, which was a total loss.

Swimming Pool Essay Contest Begins Today

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE LISTS RULES FOR ENTRIES

As the first move in a campaign to guarantee a new swimming pool for Sierra Madre, the Chamber of Commerce this week announced rules for its Essay Contest.

Writing on the subject, "Why Sierra Madre Needs a New Swimming Pool," all children not over 14 years of age and living within the incorporated limits of Sierra Madre may enter the contest. Chamber of Commerce President Al Morgan stated Tuesday.

Opening date of the contest is today, and all entries must be submitted at the NEWS office no later than Thursday, October 6, Morgan said.

Length of the essays are not to exceed 500 words, and winners of the contest will be announced in the Oct. 13 Edition of the NEWS.

The first place winning essay will be printed in this newspaper.

Morgan emphasized that grammar and spelling will not be factors in judging the essays.

"The ideas and method of presenting them are the important points we will look for," he said.

First prize will be a three-month pass to the Sierra Madre Theater, Morgan confided. Second, third and fourth place awards will be cash: $5 for second prize; $3 for third prize; and $2 for the fourth prize.

All manuscripts become the property of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce and cannot be returned. They do not have to be typed, but should be easily legible, Morgan cautioned.

DEADLINE SEPT. 30 FOR DOG LICENSES

Deadline for obtaining dog licenses is Sept. 30, Chief of Police Gordon C. McMillan warned residents this week.

"Penalties of $2 per license go into effect as of Sunday, Oct. 1," the chief said.

An approximate 264 dog-owners have not yet purchased their 1950 dog licenses. Referring to last year's total of 644 licenses, McMillan said only 380 have been issued so far this year.

License fees, not including penalties for being late, are $2 for males and spayed females; $4 for females. Licenses may be obtained at the Police Department—open 24 hours a day.

PUBLIC HEARINGS CONTINUE ON P. E. BUS PROPOSAL

Public hearings on Pacific Electric's proposed abandonment of streetcars and the substitution of busses are continuing today and tomorrow—and probably will resume next week.

City Attorney T. Guy Cornyn has been present at the hearings since they began on Monday, and yesterday, he presented his first remarks in opposition to the proposal. He is expected to voice Sierra Madre's protest of the plan every day throughout the remainder of the hearings.

In a letter received by the NEWS this week, Lillian Young Clark urged all Sierra Madreams to attend the hearings, held each day in the Mirror Building, Second and Spring streets, Los Angeles. The letter stated:

"If you are at all interested in maintaining the big red trains, why not, at this crucial time, attend the meetings now in session in a body—the more people from Sierra Madre, the better."

PERMIT FOR NEW HASTINGS SCHOOL

Construction of the Hastings Ranch Elementary School, begun on Aug. 8, officially "started" last week when the City of Pasadena issued a building permit for the new structure.

According to the permit taken out by the Pasadena School Board, the building, to be located at 3600 Sierra Madre boulevard, will cost $348,684.

Two Councilmen To Discuss Hastings Annex at Chamber

Sierra Madre's Chamber of Commerce will hear two City Councilmen discuss the proposed Upper Hastings Ranch Annexation today at its regular meeting, 12:15, at the Woman's Clubhouse. Councilman Herman Barter and Henry Korsmeier will present short talks, outlining recent development plans for this area, and then will answer questions of Chamber members.

Concessions obtained so far from the Ranch subdividers and concessions the City Council still is trying to get will be described by the speakers.

Rosalie Goodwin, Chamber secretary, said the Councilmen probably would state what they feel are the minimum requirements necessary before the Council would be willing to accept the annexation to Sierra Madre.

Caltech Students Move Into Hotel Sierra Madre Monday

With reconditioning work nearly completed, the old Hotel Sierra Madre will open its doors Monday to 25 students of California Institute of Technology.

Culminating nearly 70 years of colorful history, the hotel will now serve as a student house, Owner Blanche Buie stated last week.

She reports that the ancient structure recently was leased to Mr. Jack Ottestad, who will serve as "house father" for the 25 Caltech men.

Mrs. Buie said the hotel was converted for its new use to help students find living quarters and meet expenses who, otherwise, would have difficulty in the present scarcity of part-time jobs.

According to Ottestad, modernization of the living quarters has been nearly completed. He said the quaint, picturesque air of the building will be retained, however.

Both Mrs. Buie and Ottestad voiced an appeal for furniture for the student house. Desks, tables, and chairs are particularly needed, they said.

All contributed furniture will be a permanent gift to Caltech students, Mrs. Buie said, and should not be thought of as being donated to the hotel.

In asking Sierra Madreans to search their garages and attics for furniture, Ottestad requested that residents either bring their donations directly to the student house, or leave their names and addresses. "Caltech" boys will gladly make the collections," he said.

Hotel Sierra Madre is located at 225 N. Lima.

18-YEAR-OLDS WARNED THEY MUST REGISTER

Eighteen-year-olds were again warned this week that they must register for the draft within five days after their 18th birthday.

Col. K. H. Heitch, State Director of Selective Service, said persons should notify their draft boards of any proposed moves. This includes, he said, going away to school or any other changes of address.

He pointed out, however, that college students who reach draft age while attending school away from home need not return to their city to register.

Building Permits In Increase With End of Summer

Building Inspector Bill Lees' office, at times nearly dormant throughout the summer, this month is becoming a beehive of activity.

The return from summer vacations by Sierra Madreans is given by Lees as the principal reason for the "comeback."

"Citizens are back now for the year, and building activity is being undertaken by many," Lees said.

Largest construction permit issued so far during September, according to the Building Inspector, was $22,000 for the new Church of the Ascension Parish Day School building.

C. M. Winslow Jr. is the architect, and the Baker-Lane Company are contractors for the new school building, which will include a new office, four classrooms, and a playground for the kindergarten.

23 Citizens 'Branded' In Weird Rites

Twenty-three men and boys were branded Tuesday night. No, this is not an international atrocity story, but an account of what happened in Sierra Madre this week when Boy Scouts of Troop No. 3 and the Explorer Scouts got together for a joint meeting.

The occasion was soothingly described as "Parents' Night" by a spokesman of the local troop, but this reporter isn't too sure about the whole thing.

He said that a "branding ceremony" was performed for the 19 boys and four adult leaders who participated in the recent camping trip at Sequoia.

According to the informant, belts or knife sheaths of the honored guests (not their hides) were branded with a Scouting symbol—a tree with a capital letter S superimposed over it.

Following the (ugh) celebration, picture slides of the camping trip were shown.

Man, Charged With Drunkenness, Given Suspended Sentence

Alfred Sanchez, 97 N. Lima, accused of drunkenness, received a 30-day suspended jail sentence Wednesday by City Judge John C. Mead.

He was arrested at his home after his brother, Carmel Sanchez, 105 N. Lima, said he tried to convince him "to stop drinking and go home so the neighbors can get some peace."

Sanchez' brother made the complaint at police headquarters.

'PEEWEE' CULLUM COMPETES TONIGHT IN LONDON FINALS

Sierra Madre's Charles Leonard ("Pee-wee") Cullum is expected to compete tonight in the World's Championship Motorcycle Racing Finals in the famous Wembley Stadium, London, England.

Pee-wee, who lives at 58 E. Sierra Madre Blvd., left for England on March 31. Since then, he has been successfully competing in the championship races which end tonight. An expected 100,000 British fans will witness the finals.

Cullum was accompanied by two other American teammates, Pasadena's Gordy Milne and Jimmy Gibb of Los Angeles.

The three motorcyclists plan to leave for the United States Oct. 22 aboard the luxury liner, Ile de France. Cullum will arrive in Sierra Madre by the first week in November.

Full Classes At St. Rita's

With a total registration of 165, classes at St. Rita's Parochial School this year are nearing capacity size, a spokesman of the School said this week.

There were only a few empty seats in one or two of the eight grades as first sessions of the Parochial School began two weeks ago. The 165 pupils represent a record enrollment for the school, it was said.

Teacher Sister Inez reports that new playground equipment—including teeter-totters and swings—has been ordered and is expected to arrive within the next few days.

The playground across the street from St. Rita's School, recently graded, is now ready for use, she said.

CITIZENS PREPARE POLIO BOND HELP

Many citizens in Los Angeles County this week prepared to get solidly behind Proposition "A," the non-political polio hospital bond issue on the Nov. 8 special election ballot.

Requiring a two-thirds vote to pass, Proposition "A" calls for the construction of a new polio and communicable disease building on the grounds of County Hospital, to replace the reportedly badly-crowded red brick building.

Local Woman Gets Unusual Sentence

An unusual sentence was imposed on Mrs. Beulah Franklin McBurney by City Judge John Mead last week.

After pleading guilty to charges of drunkenness, Mrs. McBurney was sentenced to pay a $60 fine or go to jail for 30 days.

During the sentencing, however, police say Mrs. McBurney expressed the wish to leave Sierra Madre and never return.

Judge Mead obligingly suspended her sentence on the condition that she is not charged with any other similar violations, and on her agreement that she will remain outside the city limits of Sierra Madre.

Mrs. McBurney said she has been living with her mother at 9767 Glen Oak boulevard in Sun Valley. She formerly lived at 595 Yucca Trail.

Jonathan Scott Heads Pasadena Art Fair

Jonathan Scott, former artist resident of Sierra Madre, is chairman of the planning committee for the Pasadena Art Fair, starting tomorrow through Sunday (Sept. 23-25) in the Pasadena City Hall Plaza.

London-born Mr. Scott, a former student in Munich and Florence, will exhibit a group of oil and water-color paintings at the fair, and on Friday he will give a free quick-sketch class in the City Hall Plaza at 2:15 p.m.

First Class in Economics Opens Tonight at School

Are we headed for another serious depression? What caused the one in the 1930's, and are the same forces operating today? These and other similar questions will be discussed in the free public class in fundamental economics which opens tonight, Sept. 22, 7:30 p. m., at the Sierra Madre Public School, 141 W. Highland.

This class, which will be held in the school library (second floor), is one of 14 in the extended Los Angeles area sponsored by the Henry George School of Social Science, chartered by New York State University. California sponsors include William C. deMille and Kathleen Norris.

Other economic questions to be taken up in the round-table discussions of the class, which meets once weekly for 10 weeks, are: labor-management relations, the whys and wherefores of taxes, the cause of and the cure for the spread of Communism, causes of inflation and the economic steps toward the prevention of another war.

Persons interested in enrolling for the course may do so at the opening session tonight.

FIRE FLAMES

It is regrettable that this column must contain repetition each week. To keep FIRE PREVENTION at work, there is no other way. To neglect for a week only affords an opportunity for carelessness.

We are about to enter "FIRE PREVENTION WEEK" which is the week of October 9-15. There is very little difference in the topics discussed or the problems presented.

Although we in Sierra Madre are fortunate enough to escape the horrors of most fire, there continues to be a great fire loss throughout the nation. This past year's figures exceeded any other. The estimated fire loss for the year 1949 is $715,074,000.

There is hope for the coming year to be less if present indications run true. If the loss declines, it will be the first time since 1940. The report shows that the decline for 1949 to date has been due to the work of fire departments, civic groups, schools and other organizations. We cannot relax. FIRE PREVENTION must be a daily practice. We still think SIERRA MADRE can be proud of her record.

The men of the Fire Department and their wives are devoting much to retain an interest in the work of the Department. Some gather around a piano and sing. (Some gather around the same piano and try.) Others enjoy playing Volley Ball, at which most are becoming very skillful. Tuesday evenings at the park is similar to a family picnic with all the newest additions to the families have a great time.

Visiting firemen from all parts of the San Gabriel Valley were in Sierra Madre last Friday evening and enjoyed the hospitality of the local strangers. Mayor Steinberger and Councilman Kinney attended and welcomed the strangers. The gathering later moved in on Bobby Clark at his new Shop on Auburn Avenue. Fine food and cold drinks were served.

Much discussion of the coming State Firemen's Convention to be held at Big Bear took place. Some of the leaders of the San Gabriel Firemen's Association are also leaders of the State Organization. A big Convention is expected.

Several fires have been started by children with matches here during the summer vacation. Not all of these children were denied the privilege of summer camp that was provided. Keeping matches away from children is considered a very important fire prevention move. The best behaved youngsters are tempted by matches. We urge that they be kept out of reach of little hands.

Good fortune and timely arrivals saved us from disaster. Two fires in the Canyon area were definitely started by children. Both were extinguished without much damage. Either could have reached the dry brush area in a few short minutes. The early arrival of the Fire Department and the quick action of garden hoses by neighbors saved the day.

Those who have GOOD garden hose attached near their houses are urging one of the best proved first aid fire fighting tools. Numerous times this has been proved in Sierra Madre. For our own protection, especially those of us who live in the foothill and brush area, a good garden hose at hand is invaluable.

Other fires throughout the year were caused by the careless throwing of cigarette butts. Once a fire started from a smoldering cigarette in a waste paper basket.

WATCH OUT FOR THIS. BE SURE THAT THE CIGARETTE IS OUT!

Sailing For Japan

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mitchell started on their two-weeks' trip to Tokyo, Japan. They were accompanied by their parents, Mrs. Jack Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Needham as far as San Francisco. The young couple sailed Saturday on the S. S. Fleetwood, a freighter carrying 12 passengers. There are no passenger ships sailing to Japan.

The Mitchells received their commissions only recently at Bethany Church in a very impressive service, when the general directory of the Evangelical Alliance Missions, Rev. David Johnson, told of the great need for Christian leadership in Japan to counteract the enroads of Communism.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, with their excellent educational backgrounds, expect to work among university students of Tokyo.

SCOUT LEADERS' COURSE PLANNED

In hopes of achieving "quality scouting" by training all of its volunteer leaders, the Pasadena-San Gabriel Valley Council of Boy Scouts of America has scheduled a University of Scouting, beginning Oct. 12.

Presented in cooperation with the Extended Day Service of the Pasadena City Schools System, four successive Wednesday night classes will be held at McKinley Junior High School, 325 S. Oak Knoll, Pasadena.

Training in every basic Scouting subject, outstanding speakers, fellowship, and Scouting "know how" are promised by Scouting Council officials.

ANOTHER DEER STRUCK BY CAR

The mortality rate on deer that happen to stroll across Sierra Madre boulevard—already high—took another jump last week.

Arthur Puy, 2472 E. Chey Chase, Glendale, informed city police officers that a deer had been struck and killed by a passing motorist on the boulevard between Michillinda and Sierra Madre Villa.

Local officers stood by until Pasadena policemen arrived to remove the dead animal. Impact of the running deer caused slight damage to the automobile, it was reported.

Several weeks ago another deer was killed at the same approximate location.

New Mountain Triumph Mrs. W. Thompson Adds

Mrs. Wandalee Thompson has another mountain-climbing victory to her credit.

The prominent Sierra Madre adventuress last week became one of an estimated only 50 persons to conquer Mount San Jacinto by way of the northern face.

Mount San Jacinto has the distinction of being the steepest mountain for its height on the continent. The summit is 10,805 feet; the elevation at Palm Springs is 455 feet. There are nearly two miles of verticality to overcome, therefore, if a hiker attempts the summit from the east side, and nearly that distance from the northern side.

Although the eastern face of the mountain may be successfully negotiated by even "comparatively inexperienced hikers," to the ardent mountain climber, the trailless northern face holds a great fascination as a route of ascent, because it is such a challenge to his ability.

It was in answer to this challenge that Mrs. Thompson, who lives at 289 San Gabriel Court, said she joined Dr. Ernest Bower of Altadena last Saturday to attempt the northern climb.

The tiny Mrs. Thompson and Dr. Bower accordingly began the climb at 5:20 a. m. from the Palm Springs Water Intake at the mouth of Snow Creek.

They reached the summit after 9 hours and 10 minutes of actual climbing and 10 hours total time. During these hours, a gain of 9000 feet elevation was accomplished in a distance of between 4 or 5 miles.

Mrs. Thompson said this time broke all previous records of ascents made by Dr. Bower. "From my own experiences of mountain climbing, I regard it as the most interesting, spectacular, and the most difficult climb I've ever made, including Sierra ascents of 14,000 foot peaks," Mrs. Thompson said.

"But in spite of the sustained, difficult climbing, one is fully aware and appreciative of the beauty and inspiring views which are constantly presented.

After spending an hour and a half at the summit, which was reached shortly after 3 p. m., the two mountain climbers began the 5500 foot, 8 mile descent.

At 8:20 p. m., they reached Fern Valley after a day which Mrs. Thompson conservatively describes as a "very full 15-hour day, a most satisfying attainment, and a wonderful climb."

Kiwanis Club Schedules

Sierra Madre Kiwanians will meet Friday with the Glendora Kiwanis Club.

In urging as many members as possible to attend the inter-club meeting, President J. Earl Gossard said cars and drivers will assemble in Sierra Madre to furnish transportation to those needing it.

FORMER RESIDENTS BECOME TEACHERS AT ART CENTER

Two former Sierra Madreans have joined the teaching staff of the San Gabriel Valley Art Center, it was announced this week.

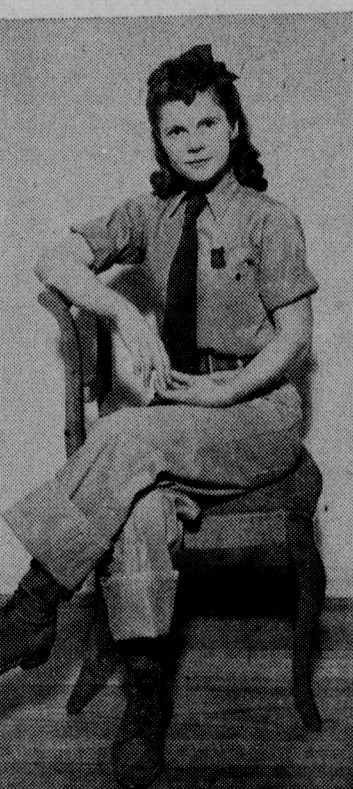

They are Mrs. Caroline Spears Rohland, who with her husband, Paul Rohland, were well-known residents here several years; and Jonathan Scott, also a prominent citizen who formerly lived on Mira Monte avenue.

Mrs. Rohland, who maintained her Sierra Madre studio on Alta Vista Drive, studied in Paris for five years and was associated with Pascan, David, and Mattise there. She also attended the School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston, and belonged to the Art Students League of New York. Mrs. Rohland will teach children's art at the Art Center.

Jonathan Scott, who will instruct in oil and water color landscape and still life painting, has studied art at Munich, London, and Florence. A former teacher at the University of Southern California and the Pasadena Art Institute, Scott has received several awards for his art work.

FLIES HOME

Mrs. Maude Rikeman returned via plane Saturday from Bridgeport, Conn., where she has been a guest of her brother and family. Mrs. Rikeman has been away from the city nine weeks and took up her duties at the store on Kersting Court Monday.

Sierra Madreans Race Jalopies at Local Tracks

When the stock cars roar down the stretch at any of four local speedways, Sierra Madreans may rest assured that they are being represented.

Owners of the Stoddart and Guthrie Seaside Gasoline Station and Garage own and maintain two racing cars which appear four nights each week at Southern California tracks.

They are Bill Stoddart and Clyde Guthrie, who, with Tom Bigelow and driver Bob Stancliff, enter one of their stock Model B. Fords in races at Balboa Park on Fridays, Culver City on Saturdays, Huntington Beach on Sunday afternoons, and at Carpinteria on Mondays.

And their entries are paying off. The two cars have won several trophies and cash awards, and the newest coupe—first put into action one month ago—ran off with the main event and trophy race in its initial appearance. Money prizes are based on a percentage of the gate receipts.

Sponsored by the recently-organized California Jalopy Association, the races are limited to "stock cars"—that is, cars using only factory parts and not hopped up.

At the completion of races, the first three winners are inspected by track officials to make certain that only stock equipment has been used. The ancient Fords are permitted the hauled and checked to guarantee maximum efficiency and assistance of V-8 engines, however.

To all outward appearances, the racing autos look just like any high school kid's pride and joy. There are no windshields, however, and the cars are completely "cut-down."

During the race, drivers, wearing crash helmets and goggles, are strapped into their seats with standard aviation safety belts. To gain maximum performance, the cars are locked in second gear.

Driver Stancliff, who recently moved to Sierra Madre and is now living on Audubon Way, stated that the cars usually average around 60 to 65 miles per hour during competition.

After each race, the automobiles are completely overhauled and checked to guarantee maximum efficiency and safety. According to Mechanic Bigelow, tires wear fairly well on the dirt tracks. Rear tires on the jalopies are grooved slightly to permit better traction.

Bigelow estimates that there are now 50 stock cars competing weekly in Southern California racing.

POLICE BLOTTER

Driving while intoxicated also brings to the attention of the officers that the man was without a driver's license. 'Z'at tuff?

Two local boys vying for honors of the suckers used the "Main Street" for a race track. Young men of the age to drive cars should at least have some regard for their friends and neighbors.

Mrs. McBurney of 36 W. Mira Monte called for the police to come chase a rattlesnake from the yard. The modest policeman only reported back ten minutes later that the snake had been killed. We are not certain whether Hi Embree killed it with a shot from his gun or whether he killed it at all. It was killed at any rate. A "TC."

Working on your car in the hours toward morning is not altogether pleasant for your neighbors. So they shot. Officers called to investigate a possible burglary. A boy slumped over on his motor scooter, scooter away before the arrival of the police.

Barking dogs in the vicinity of a City Councilman, annoy his sleep. After all it was 2:30 a. m. Investigation of boys playing with matches. Continuous burning out of hours brings a madness from next door. Two 12-year-old boys break into two houses. They are caught. Horses too close. Prowler. Fire Call. Stray dog.

Shooting fireworks in September does not lessen any of the danger of fire.

She squeezed herself between two cars, she peeked off to the west, then darted right out in the street, and altho' she ran her best—she ran right up against a car, that came speeding from the east. She isn't pretty any more—not pretty in the least. The moral of this story is, crosswalks are made to use, so if you stay between the lines, you're less subject to bruise.

Chunn and Mackie find a gun under the back seat of a car driven by suspicious looking youths. Six of 'em brot to the station by the boys.

Youths that should obey the Curfew laws. Late hours are of not much benefit to anyone, including adults. Sleep is much better. At least the next day.

A report of a man shooting wood peckers. The birds can be annoying—but it's agin' the law to shoot within the City limits of Sierra Madre.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

"Children will experience happiness in connection with Church life only as the adults, themselves, are contagiously happy."

Taken from the Sept. 4 program of the Trinity Presbyterian Church, meeting in the Masonic Temple.

Great Books Group Slates 1st Meeting

Sierra Madreans will have their say about the Declaration of Independence Tuesday evening, 8 p. m., when the newly organized Great Books Discussion Group opens its first meeting at the Park House.

Meeting on alternate Tuesday evenings for informal round-table discussions of assigned readings, the group will follow a program covering selections from the works of the greatest thinkers and writers of all time. The first session will consist of an appraisal of America's famous document, the Declaration of Independence.

Co-leaders of the Sierra Madre group are Harry M. Eder and Anne E. Cotter, who recently completed their training for leading Great Books discussions.

According to Mrs. Cotter, the national Foundation was organized on the theory that a free and open discussion helps people understand what they have read, and that reading, understanding, and talking about the world's great books is an exciting experience within the reach of everyone, regardless of past training and formal education.

In inviting local citizens to participate in the discussions, Mrs. Cotter said the only prerequisite for group members is the willingness to read.

AUTO CLUB'S TRIP OF THE WEEK

Upper San Luis Obispo County

This week's loop tour through the upper San Luis Obispo County is a natural for motorists seeking to observe some of California's richest agricultural and cattle country. The trip, as outlined on the map, is a delightful six-hour journey, which allows ample opportunity for one to stop and visit a few of the historically-important points of interest along the course.

1. San Luis Obispo, incorporated in 1856, is the county seat. This town grew up around Mission San Luis Obispo de Tolosa...
2. Atascadero, rimmed by a semi-circle of wooded hills, was conceived in 1913 as a model community, designed on paper to conform to uniform architectural standards and laid out on a scale large enough to accommodate a metropolis. Following the failure of this enterprise, the town eventually found salvation in its chicken and turkey raising. Lower photo shows nearby Atascadero Lake...
3. The rolling hills around Paso Robles are still dotted with the great spreading oaks that led early Spanish explorers to name the place El Paso de los Robles. However, its almond trees are now more famous, for the town is surrounded by large almond acreages. Long noted for its hot springs, Paso Robles boasts of a Municipal Bath House, which is built over the main sulphur spring...
4. Of all the California missions, the church at Mission San Miguel is probably the most unspoiled and many of the original interior decorations of early Indian artists still are clearly visible (center

5. Top photo shows typical scene along the stretch between San Miguel and Pozo, which is principally cattle country. In the southwestern part of Carrizo Plain rises a lonely sandstone butte known as Painted Rock. Along the walls are a number of crude aboriginal paintings in bright colors, representing men, birds, suns and other undecipherable figures. This place is believed to have been an ancient temple...
6. Watch out for the sharp hairpin turns as the course twists up the wild, wooded slopes of the La Panza Range. South of Santa Margarita is the Cuesta Pass over which John C. Fremont led his small army in 1848 to attack the town of San Luis Obispo.

New Camp Fire Officers Chosen

The youngest local Camp Fire group (fifth graders) elected their officers during a meeting Wednesday at the home of their leader, Mrs. John Rudbach, 272 E. Highland.

President is Judy Summers; vice-president, Shirley Cook; secretary, Margaret Carter, and treasurer, Judy Perry.

The girls also selected as their year's motto: "The Greatest Happiness Comes From Making Others Happy."

HOME SUNDAY

Mrs. Freda M. Clatworthy of 82 W. Alameda will return Sunday from a two-week visit in San Francisco with her daughter, Mrs. Gerald Ferrari.

OFFICIALS, COUNCIL

buy these homes. The average G. I. now wants homes of about 800 square feet.

8. House sizes: "Generally speaking, it looks as though houses of about 1000 square feet will be built. Without a survey I would put it at about 1200 feet to a house."

"But this is a $9,000,000 project—and you can't start a $9,000,000 business without a survey."

"The survey itself will cost from $50,000 to $75,000 and take a month to complete. It will determine what people of this area want, what they will buy and what they will pay."

"I will follow what the survey shows—but I will follow cautiously and be prepared to change. Surveys can be and often are wrong."

"After a tract is started we can tell for sure. We started homes of 900 square feet at Alhambra. We built 25 and found that we were wrong. We boosted the size to 1100 square feet—and they all sold. At Encino we had to build 800 feet. And it's our fastest selling tract."

9. Street direction: "We will run the streets east and west if that is what the city wants. That is what we preferred and what the architects drew up. The engineers, however, recommended north and south streets."

10. Lot sizes: "We believe in small lots. People cannot maintain large lots and the trend is away from them. The back ends of long lots usually are unkept and overgrown with weeds. People put up fences to hide them. You've got hundreds of 60-foot lots in this city and you also have enough one and two acre lots to care for our time and our children's. Lots of 6000 and 6500 feet are considered average—7500 is above average."

11. Lower Hastings: "Developers of the Lower Hastings tried building big houses, but, undoubtedly, smaller houses will sell better. We must build what people want."

R. Dorweiler Opening New Area Plant

Grand Opening ceremonies for El Monte's new R. V. Dorweiler Inc., Chevrolet and Oldsmobile Sales and Service building, at 310 S. Tyler avenue, take place Saturday and Sunday, company officials announced this week.

The new building, offering complete care and servicing facilities to area owners of Oldsmobile and Chevrolet automobiles, embodies the latest architectural developments.

The entire plant covers 35,000 square feet and includes a complete paint and body shop, new and used car conditioning departments, and a used car lot.

Officers of the firm are Dorweiler, president; Mrs. Edna M. Dorweiler, vice-president; and J. C. Kriminger, secretary and treasurer.

The Sales department is under the direction of Mr. George Robertson. Virgil Charles is the company service manager, and Ralph Jordan is parts manager.

PIANO TEACHER AT CONVENTION

Mrs. Amy Hardin of 57 W. Laurel recently returned from four days at the country-wide convention of the National Music Teacher's Association, in San Francisco.

She reports that this convention, first ever to be held on the West Coast, and attended by over 750 music teachers, featured lectures, panel-discussions, demonstration exhibits, and many concerts by leading musicians.

Chamber Board of Directors

Last Monday night's Chamber of Commerce Board meeting, it was decided to formally begin plans for Christmas decorations around the first of October.

Using a similar theme as the one last year, the Chamber plans to decorate the P. E. station and sponsor the singing of Christmas Carols.

The 15 members of the Board heard Mrs. P. R. Woodworth explain the functions of the Co-ordinating Council.

Robert Green, Chamber of Commerce director, and manager of the local office of the Southern California Edison Company, reported that a survey of the lines and equipment in the Canyon area has been made by the Edison Company, with no present hazard being discovered.

Also at the meeting—besides discussing the Hastings annexation and unanimously going on record as favoring a new swimming pool—the Board charged all Chamber of Commerce members to bring another new member into the organization.

BABY SHOWER FOR MRS. BOB BURRIS

Last week Mrs. Percy Kortkamp of 460 W. Montecito, was hostess at a baby shower for her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Burris of Monrovia.

The home of Mrs. Burris, which was the scene of the shower, was decorated in pink and blue, with a stork centerpiece on the refreshment table.

ARCADIA BOWLING COURTS OPENING

Three exhibition bowling matches by famous bowlers and greetings from leading citizens of the area will feature the opening ceremonies of Arcadia Bowling Courts, Saturday, Sept. 24.

Opening day arrangements being undertaken by the San Gabriel Valley Bowling Association, the entire gross proceeds of the first day's operation will be turned over to the Association.

The Beverly-Pasadena Bowling Corporation, operators of the new bowling courts, will formally open the recreation center at 7:30 p. m. Saturday night, although the alleys will be opened at 1 P. M.

Arcadia Bowling Courts will boast 16 Brunswick bowling lanes, having semi-automatic pinspotters. A restaurant, seven billiard and snooker tables, and 172 upholstered opera seats are some of the highlights of the new bowling center, located at 21 Moran Place, Arcadia.
